

GRANDEUR OF THE SIAMESE ROYAL TREASURE

Highlights:

- *Awe-inspiring Thai art treasures
- *Display of Thai Royal Family's private collection
- *Splendid Renaissance style architectural building

Discover the awe-inspiring Thai art treasures from the Royal Family's private collection. The historic Ananta Samakhom Throne Hall, build in 1937, has only recently been open to the public and is an Impressive building once served as the Parlier halls and its renaissance style architecture, gold and domes, and magnificent interior fresco paintings are as impressive as the art collection itself.

Time: 08.00-12.00 / 13.00-17.00

Note: *Not available on Mondays.

*Excludes Audio Guide

*Appropriate dress is required res (us be rented on site)

